The High School Building

Foreword

Hands — symbolic of effort and accomplishment . . Through the year, the guiding hands of our teachers have daily led us down the paths of learning toward a wider conception of our heritage. Now, through the medium of hands, we have endeavored to mirror the scenes you helped make complete, the people with whom you associated, and the activities of which you were a part. We therefore dedicate to you, the students, this 1951-52 Chieftain, an achievement made possible through the co-ordination of minds and hands.

TOP SELLERS—Don, Barb, Pat, and Joan.

This was the junior class—just an ordinary class of 70 kids with one outstanding quality—everything they undertook to do was done with confidence and they always came through shining!

Money troubles? Plenty of them at first, but they all pitched in like old scouts and proved themselves to be model salesmen of magazine subscriptions. The result was a tidy sum which went for a grand banquet plus a wonderful prom.

Freshman Class

This year was rather extra special for the freshman. The kids from the country came in, they got to choose their subjects, and most of all, they made up the peak of the junior high. Sparkle, vitality, pep, talent, and then some — that's the freshman class!

Seventh Grade

In their first year of junior high, they had to undergo a lot of changes. Their classes were switched to the gym and sometimes they missed those recesses. On Junior High Night — their big night — they showed us that although they were the last rung of the ladder of junior high, they certainly weren't the least!

Beverly Rath, Barbara Brown, Elma Love, Betty Townsend, Sheldon Lloyd.

This is the 1951-52 concert band, and they are sixty-strong under the capable direction of Roy Holtz.

Last fall the band journeyed to Storm Lake for the marching band contest where they received a II rating. Peggy Theissen, drum majorette, received a I rating on her baton solo. The band furnished music for the football and basketball games as well. During January, the annual concert was given, and soon came the contest. The band, soloists, and small groups came through with "flying colors."

Band members include seventeen seniors, who will be missed greatly.

Vesper Choir

Once a year we are given an opportunity to present a program in which the entire membership of both glee clubs participate. This is the solemn Vesper Service in which beautiful music and an appropriate setting make up an impressive yuletide program.

Mixed Chorus

Members chosen from the two glee clubs combine their abilities to form that talented outfit known as the Mixed Chorus! They work hard all year to produce effective vocalizing and harmonizing, and then they just sit back and enjoy their ratings.

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club this year was composed largely of new, inexperienced members. Although this wasn't in their favor, they didn't let it stand in their way! With the help of Miss Oppedahl, they plunged in with everything they had to build up a glee club that could match the best of them! Don Faehn is president, Craig Knudson is vice-president, and Boyd Mayberry is secretary treasurer.

Girls' Glee Club

They're really great, and they're just too honest to deny it! Under the leadership of Miss Oppedahl, these forty-five songsters are always at their musical best! The "Sensations of 1952" picked Janet Stanzel as their president, Joyce Jarnagin as vice-president, Marcene Fort, secretary, and Jackie Pellersels, treasurer.

Activities

Student Council

The Student Council is the governing group that represents the students. They take charge of building the queen's float during homecoming and sponsor the annual Career Day activities. All our disagreements and "grievances" are sent to their meetings to be thrashed out as the members represent the students in trying to solve school problems.

The most notable award of the year is to be selected to hold membership in the National Honor Society. The society is based on the principles of leadership, scholarship, character, and service, and members are selected by the faculty.

Another honorary group in school is Thespians, a national dramatics organization. They call them amateurs, but that's underestimating them! When they're in action, they're like old troupers! John Bartlett has the main role as president, with Bob Lee, vice-president; Janet Stanzel, secretary; Bob McClung, treasurer, and Don Bancroft, member-at-large.

The 1952 Chieftain

"You don't have to be crazy to put out an annual, but it sure helps!" With pencils behind our ears and a set look in our eyes, we've snapped pictures, juggled phrases, struggled with our budget and rushed to meet our deadlines! The annual staff now brings you the 1952 Chieftain with the hope it meets with your approval and if it doesn't, we willingly give the blame to Miss Lister.

Librarians Club

These are the kids who give up their study halls to work in the library. If something slips, they're liable to get the blame, but they take it like good scouts! Heading the group are Lou Rae McCrea, president; CaroleSue Griffith, vice-president; Jo Pullen, secretary; Beverly Rath, treasurer, and Carol Wiley, reporter. What would we do without them?

These are our little secretaries who someday will have a comfortable position (on the boss's knee?!?). Seriously, they're efficient, sharp, and bound to go places! Officers are Bonnie Rehder, president; Jackie Pellersels, vice-president; Norma Case, secretary; Glenda Penniman, treasurer, and Dorothy Barnhill, and Alta Arndt shared the office of reporter.

They started off with the Freshman Parent-Son Banquet and claimed the cream of the crop at the Harvest Ball where they selected Bonnie Rodgers as their Sweetheart. Later they attended the National Convention and then donned their party manners and took their folks out to the Parent-Son Banquet to show them the tricks of the FFA, a grand organization.

Some of the officers pose . .

The Future Homemakers of America is the school's largest organization, and probably one of the busiest too. They went all out to share the Christmas spirit by sponsoring the charitable Christmas Festival which provided gifts for the unfortunate ones overseas. In addition to this, they attended the District Convention, and were represented at the State Convention by Mary Goecke and Shirley Patterson. Shirley was elected State Secretary, an honor for her and her chapter. The chapter also sponsored the annual Formal Dance. The officers include Marilyn Longnecker, president; Bonnie Rehder, vice-president; Margaret Tapley, secretary; Bonnie Rodgers, treasurer; Donna Hunziker, publicity chairman; Mary Goecke, reporter; Barbara Brown, parliamentarian; Shirley Patterson, historian; and Maxine Lents, music chairman.

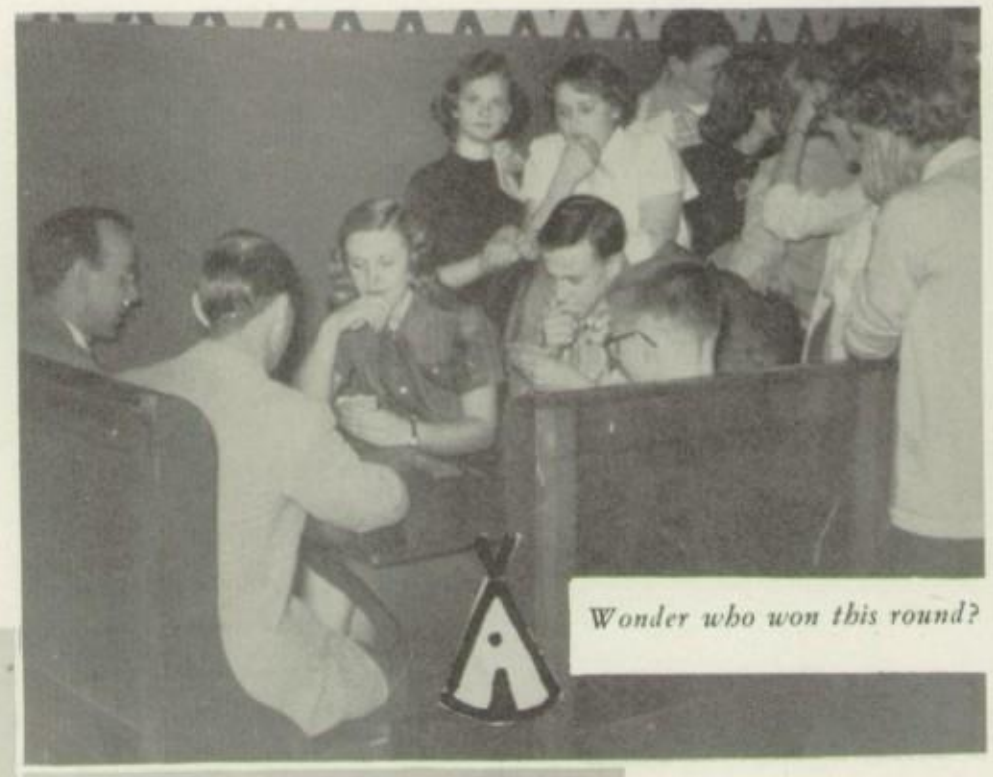
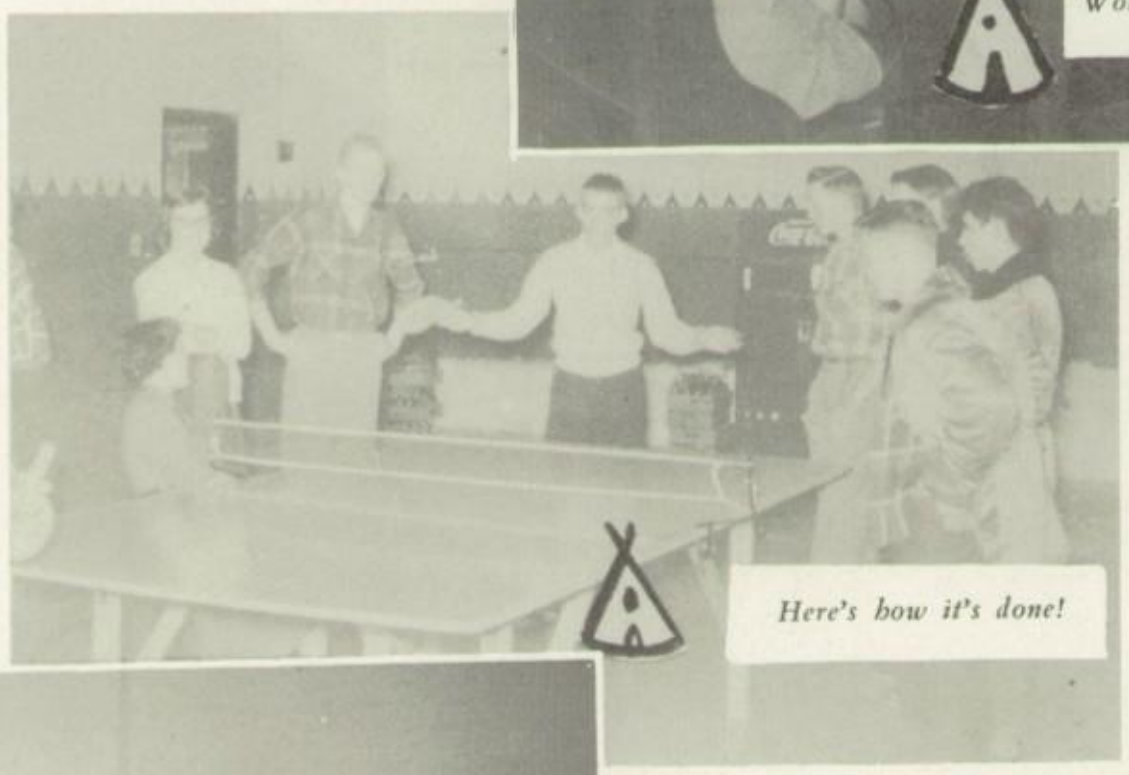
The Teepee Room

Amid the tantalizing aroma of food and the laughter of the students, one can find just about all of the students of S.C.H.S. at the Teepee Room following basketball and football games and at the celebration of special events. The Teepee Room is planned and supervised by the students themselves. Officers are President, John Bartlett; Vice-President, Gary Lake; Secretary, Mary Montag; and Treasurer Bob Lee.



Wonder who won this round?



Here's how it's done!

The officers have their say!

My, how these sophomores get around!

Football Squad

The Sac City football squad closed a successful season with six games won, two lost, and one tied. Sac City placed third in the Mid-West Conference, surpassed only by first place Denison and second place Jefferson. The team held its own in the way of prestige by placing five men on the All-Conference team and seven on the All-County team. An outstanding quality of each member on the squad was his willingness to report for practice every day. This is well illustrated by the fact that with the exception of two excused absences, all of the original 43 "gridders" reported for action the final practice.

Pre-game preparations for the Indian gridders!

Basketball

Although Sac City completed a none too successful season, the boys benefited greatly through their association with one another and opposing teammates. The highlight of the season was Sac City's victory over Carroll. This year's season can be credited with building material for future years. Sac City started the season with a relatively "green" team but leaves five returning lettermen for next year.

Track

Due to the fact that we must go to press before the track season gets under way, it was impossible to obtain a squad picture. The boys pictured here are all returning lettermen and will be used as a nucleus for the team. Good luck, fellows!

Papooses

These Junior high athletes completed very successful seasons in all sports. Coach Hanshaw helped greatly to develop their character by helping them learn to work both together and individually. They will always enjoy thinking back on the pleasant times spent with team members and members of the opposing teams.

G.A.A.

The GAA Officers

The GAA may not be composed of members who will be the future "Jim Thorpes" of the feminine side, but they're athletes in their own way! They don't exactly win trophies, but they're dandy at polishing them! Officers of this muscle-bound group are Carol Beach, president; Liane Clarkin, vice-president; and Jane Shull, secretary-treasurer.

Lifesaving

Cut the speed! Man the lifeboats! Man overboard! Hey! Hold everything — what they really need is one of these human lifesavers to the rescue! They're guaranteed not to rust, corrode, or decay! They've accomplished the fundamentals in swimming and are ready for anything!
